MEET TEAM IJCORPS MEMBER

RACHEL SEARLE

Rachel Searle grew up in rural Colorado but is a true city girl at heart and loves living in New York. During her time at New York Law School, Rachel volunteered for the Safe Passage Project, interned at The Door Legal Services and LatinoJustice. Currently, Rachel works as an Immigrant Justice Corps Justice Fellow at the City Bar Justice Center assisting survivors of violence and trafficking to obtain lawful immigration status. When she's not working or running, Rachel can be found walking dogs, eating out with friends, or going to a movie.

Why Rachel's Running for #TeamIJCorps:

"I am so proud to be a member of the Immigrant Justice Corps as a Justice Fellow because I am passionate about the work we do. It was very exciting to see an opportunity [running with #TeamIJCorps] to use one of my other passions to contribute to the organization.

Rachel's Stats:
