MEET TEAM IJCORPS MEMBER

SARAH BURPEE

Sarah is an Immigrant Justice Corps Justice Fellow working at Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York where she provides immigration legal services to clients in the underserved Lower Hudson Valley. Originally from Somers, NY, Sarah is a graduate of Brooklyn Law School. Prior to law school, Sarah spent two years working for a community development organization in Nicaragua, and one year working for a domestic violence agency in Newburgh, NY. Sarah is also a devoted dog-mom who enjoys traveling, reading short stories, going on feminist rants with her roommate, running in central park with her dog Osa, and sometimes making mediocre art.

Sarah has been running since she was in high school, but has never competed in a formal race before. She enjoys training in both Brooklyn Bridge Park and Central Park. This will be her first half-marathon.

SARAH'S STATS:

Longest Race: 9 Miles

Number of Half Marathons Completed: 0

Running Weather Preference: Rain

WHY SHE'S RUNNING FOR #TEAMIJCORPS:

"I am running in the 2018 United Airlines Half because I enjoy running and have always wanted to run in a NYRR race, and I wanted to take advantage of this unique opportunity to run in the NYC half marathon while also raising money for IJC."
